Zadanie 1.

Mother:

Jack, why aren't you answering the phone? I hope you're already back from school. Dad will be late as usual. I'm calling to tell you I have to stay at work longer today and if my bus comes on time at 6.30, I'll be back at 7.00. The neighbours are coming at 7.30 for the party so I want you to do some shopping. Can you get some fruit? I don't think bananas or apples will be fresh in the supermarket. Buy oranges then, two kilos, and put them on the table. I forgot to leave you any money on the bookshelf in the bedroom as usual, but check in the kitchen cupboard. You should find about five pounds in there. See you in the evening. Bye!

Zadanie 2.

2.1.

There's nothing to do when I get home from school so I just turn the TV on or go on the Internet. I don't get lots of homework and I can't afford to go out so I just stay at home with my friends and we watch TV. On Saturday and Sunday I watch even more!

2.2.

I don't have much time to watch TV. I watch TV from time to time, I think I watch two or three hours a week, but not every evening. I am at school all day and then I have a part-time job and a lot of homework to do. My mum records my favourite shows for me and I watch them all on a Saturday evening if I have the time!

2.3.

I don't have a TV! Everyone at school says it must be awful for me not to have a TV. But, the truth is, I've never had one so I don't miss it. I sometimes watch something at my friends' . I have a computer so everything I really need to see I can get on the Internet.

Ringtone

Kate: Hello, this is Kate speaking.

Jeff: Hello, Kate, it's Jeff. Kate, I want to ask you a few questions about the dance school you go to.

Kate: No problem, Jeff. What do you want to know?

Jeff: First, where is it?

Kate: It's in the city centre, next to the station.

Jeff: Oh, I thought you go to that famous dance school near here, opposite the supermarket.

Kate: No, it is too expensive. They wanted £2.50 for each lesson and at my school I only pay £2.

Jeff: On which days is the school open?

Kate: It's open every day except Thursdays. Classes for teenagers are on Mondays, then on Tuesdays and Wednesdays there are ballet classes for small kids, and our classes are again on Fridays.

Jeff: I see. Thanks a lot, Kate. Bye!

Kate: Bye, Jeff!
